

Please select a question to discuss from the following options.
If you'd like to continue the conversation, simply choose another item listed on the menu.

Light Fare

What's the one word that describes you?

What's your ideal destination?

Describe the best restaurant you've experienced recently.

What was a childhood love that you can still recognize in your life today?

How do you stay energized during the winter months?

Medium Fare

What's the most surprising transition of your professional life?

How do you seek out diversity of thought?

What three things do you need to do your job well?
What impresses you these days?

How do you measure success in your professional role?
How do you wish you measured success?

What's one thing you would like to see business start?
One thing you would like to see business stop?
One thing you want business to continue?

Heavy Fare

Consider relevance.

How do you keep up with today's marketplace trends?
How does your organization stay relevant?

Think inspiration.

What inspires you? How do you inspire others?
Describe a creative catalyst in your organization.

Discuss partnerships.

What are the three most important things to sustaining a successful partnership? What's a partnership – political, familial, corporate – that you admire?

Talk risk.

What do you deliberately avoid? When do you and your organization feel comfortable taking risks?
How do you make others feel comfortable with risk?

Share passion.

What is yours? How do you directly or indirectly apply your passion to your professional work?
How can you be aware of and utilize other people's passions?